

RED HILL GALLERY

Media Release – Immediate February 2010

"TIMELESS"

The Directors of Red Hill Gallery are truly delighted to present an exclusive major solo exhibition by Master Artist John Beeman.

Passionate enthusiasts have been patiently awaiting this collection for some two years and now it is complete. This is a wonderful opportunity to acquire his latest paintings but you will need to be quick as his previous exhibitions have sold out in days.

John Beeman's special skill is defining the subtle interplay of personalities and encapsulating that moment in oil on gesso. A difficult and unforgiving technique that he makes look effortless; gesso is a traditional method used in Europe around the Renaissance era and is almost a forgotten art.

The artistic genius of John Beeman is that his unique observations are good natured, tempered with parody and filled with character and charm giving them a truly "Timeless" quality.
