

MEDIA RELEASE – IMMEDIATE 1 July 2009

“A Classical Performance”

An exhibition of new paintings by John Maitland

The Paris Opera Ballet is touring in July and at Red Hill Gallery we have the perfect counterpart.

John Maitland showcases his latest collection of captivating paintings of movement and figures inspired by a recent trip to Paris and the ballet.

His repertoire of elegant figures merged with his primitive, expressive style, provides a glimpse into a flight of fantasy.

John says ‘I always yearn for that vibration which excites my soul. I never know when it will strike or what form it will take but it is never the obvious.’

Visit the gallery for this ‘Classical Performance’ which is sure to leave you breathless.
