Conversations in Colour

An exclusive exhibition of Designer Glass Art by Keith Rowe

One of Australia's most successful and innovative glass artists.

This world-class artist is a master in the art of glass blowing. His superior technical skills and creative flair combine to create highly collectable, unique, artistic glass. He continually pushes the boundaries to produce some of the most amazing glass art seen in Australia.

His elegant, contemporary pieces provide a diversity and spontaneity of colour that capture the light giving them a sense of fluidity.

His inspiration comes from his observation of his surroundings and then he transports those images into a mirage of the most beautiful glass that are filled with breathtaking hues & emotional colours.
